

MEDIA RELEASE • MEDIA RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
February 11, 2010

Contact: Joe Sullivan 417-337-5454

Country's Family Reunion Brings Country Music Icons to Indianapolis Stage RFD-TV Presents Country's Family Reunion Road Show Live!

INDIANAPOLIS, IN – The Murat Theatre at The Murat Center will be the setting for a live theatre presentation on April 9 utilizing the format of the highly-rated RFD-TV program known as “Country’s Family Reunion.” Show host Bill Anderson will be joined by Grand Ole Opry stars Jeannie Seely, Jim Ed Brown and Helen Cornelius and special guest James Gregory, known as “the funniest man in America.”

The stage set for this show appears to be someone’s living room, with all the artists sitting around sharing personal stories and singing their hits, backed by Bill Anderson’s PO Folks Band. All the artists stay on the stage together in this informal setting throughout the show, often joining in on each other’s songs. Some of the audience members will get an opportunity to participate with questions for the stars to answer. This two-hour presentation is designed as a live show and will not be taped for television.

Whisperin’ Bill Anderson serves as host of the show, just as he does on the TV program. “My job is to ask the right questions and pull the best stories out of my friends on stage,” said Anderson. “And, of course, we always enjoy singing our hits.”

“We have had numerous requests from fans to bring this show out on the road,” said Larry Black, creator and producer of Country’s Family Reunion, “We are happy that we have such an ideal venue in Indianapolis at The Murat Center. It is such an intimate setting with seating so close to the stage. The audience will feel very much a part of the reunion with all these wonderful artists.”

“The final decision to tour a live show version of CFR in venues throughout the country was reached this past November,” states veteran promoter Joe Sullivan, “after a test run in Branson proved to be hugely successful at RFD-TV the Theatre. We had two sold-out shows with 4,000 fans coming from as far away as Oregon, Vermont, Florida, California and numerous places in between.”

The Country’s Family Reunion television program can be seen on RFD-TV at 8:00 p.m. EST every Friday evening. RFD-TV is the national tour sponsor for the CFR Road Show.

The Country’s Family Reunion Road Show is scheduled for Friday April 9th for one show only at 7:00 p.m. Admission is priced at $ 42.50 plus applicable fees for all seats. Tickets are available at The Murat Centre Box Office, select Blockbuster stores, charge by phone at 877-598-8703 and online at LiveNation.com.

###

For photos: <http://www.sullivanshows.com/media.html>

Name: media

Password: worldclassshows